Hawaii Artist Collaboration 2024

Art Educators Supplies Grant Program @ Akamai Art Supply

The Hawaii Artist collaboration brings career artists together to explore the possibilities that can only come from working together. We believe that art education is crucial, beneficial, powerful, motivating and inspirational. We believe it improves the entire learning experience. Creativity needs to be nurtured and supported and teachers are the voice for our keiki. The Hawaii Artist Collaboration Art Educators Fund will award funds to be spent at the Akamai art supply. We are asking art educators on the big island to fill out this form and submit it to Akamai art supply. The applications will be reviewed and awards available under the teachers name . Unused funds will be returned to the grant.
